

Common Milkweed

Asclepias syriaca

Without Milkweed, the monarch butterfly would become extinct; the female needs to find milkweed to be able to lay her eggs. A good source of nectar for all butterflies, and great for other pollinators too!

Full sun

Moist soils

90-120 cm tall (3-5 ft) or more

July-August bloom

✓ Pollinators, esp. Monarchs