

Our Values

- EcoSuperior's work reflects the belief that individual actions can make a difference to a healthy environment.
 - As part of the ecosystem, all people share a responsibility for environmental stewardship.
 - Information, education and motivation are the key prerequisites for change in attitudes and behaviours.
 - Small steps can lead to more active involvement.
 - EcoSuperior will work where its efforts are most needed and can make the greatest impact.
 - Partnerships leverage greater results.
 - Better environmental choices should be accessible to all.
 - EcoSuperior staff, board and management strive to lead by example.
- An innovative, supportive and enjoyable workplace helps us accomplish organizational and personal goals.

These values are integral to how EcoSuperior delivers its work.
