

Evening Primrose

Oenothera biennis

This biennial species commonly found in dry meadows and along roadsides gets its common name from its lemon scented, primrose yellow flowers that open at dusk and close by noon the next day.

Full sun – part shade

Dry – moist, sand to clay soil

2-6 ft tall

July bloom

✓ Butterflies