

Western Canada Violet

Viola canadensis

This common woodland violet is often called Wood Violet. Large leafy foliage and bright white flowers are an indicator of this wildflowers preference for moist shade. Spreads by both seeds and rhizomes,

Part to full shade

Moist - dry soil

30-60cm tall

May – July bloom

Great understory plant!