

Yellow / Prairie Coneflower

Ratibida pinnata

One of the most strikingly beautiful of all wildflowers! The large yellow flowers bloom in profusion in the heat of mid-summer. Easy to grow, this tough plant survives extreme heat, drought, flooding, and winter cold.

Full sun – part shade

Dry – moist, sand to clay soil

3-6 ft tall

August bloom

✓ Butterflies & songbirds