

Black-eyed Susan

Rudbeckia hirta

One of the best known and easiest to grow of all the wildflowers, Black-eyed Susan is a self-seeding biennial. It is not picky about soil conditions and will grow on almost any site.

Full sun to part shade

Medium-wet soil

30-90cm tall (1-3 ft)

July-September bloom

✓ Bees, birds & butterflies

Deer & rabbit resistant