

False Solomon's Seal

Maianthemum racemosum

Part of the lily family, this plant can be found all across North America. It is a woodland plant that produces green fruits which turn red in late summer. Has a broad tolerance of soil types, moisture levels, and sunlight, allowing it to grow virtually anywhere!

Part sun to part shade

Medium – moist soil

50-90cm tall

May/June bloom

