

Fireweed

Chamerion angustifolium

Narrow-leaf fireweed is a showy, clumped perennial. The erect stems are usually reddish, have numerous alternate leaves that end in a tapering spike of rosy-purple flowers. Fireweed quickly invades burned out forests to form dense masses of color. Prone to spreading.

Full sun

Well-drained, moist to dry soils

3-5 ft

July to August