

Tall Meadow Rue

Thalictrum dasycarpum

A dense, clump-forming meadow rue that features lacy, fine-textured, medium green foliage and tiny, purplish-white flowers which appear in early summer. Individual flowers are not particularly striking, but mass effect of bloom can be quite showy. A good background plant.

Part shade

Medium moisture, rich, loamy soils

3-5 ft

June - July

Deer resistant