

Wild Ginger

Asarum canadense

A first-rate groundcover plant for shady areas. Each plant bears a pair of large, velvety, heart-shaped leaves. Combines well with Hosta or ferns in a moist woodland setting. It is definitely vigorous, but not considered invasive.

Part shade to shade

Moist soil

5-10cm tall

May/June bloom